Captured by Officer Hart—Special Officer Hart of the Union Pacific security department, arrived from Evanston yesterday after having Fred Hill, whom he captured at Provo, bound over to the district court in Wyoming. Hill, with a telegraph operator named E. Schmulen, at Spring Valley, stole a package of Union Pacific time checks sent to Spring Valley for employees. There were eight checks in all and these aggregated something over $500. Five of the checks, with forged endorsements, were cashed at Evanston, one in Ogden and two in Salt Lake. Schmulen, the operator who was recently given employment at Spring Valley, succeeded in eluding the officers, but Detective Hart trailed Hill to Provo and captured him there. Aside from grand larceny the two men are charged with a series of forgery.

Disturbed the Peace—A young man giving the name of "Tom Jenkins" was brought in from Riverdale last night and lodged in the county jail on a charge of disturbing the peace at a dance. This morning a friend called at the sheriff's office and deposited $10 for "Jenkins" appearance before Judge Murphy Monday morning and he was allowed his freedom. Questioned as to his name this morning, the prisoner evidently forgot the "Jenkins" role he was playing and said that his name was Tom Erickson—instead of Tom Jenkins.

E-Z Money Kelly—Money to loan on any good real estate. Geo. J. Kelly.

Travel is Light—Assistant Ticket Agent Corn of the Union depot says that Christmas has tied up travel tightly and that every one is staying home today. The waiting rooms of the big depot have been empty all day and local trains are running with very light passenger lists.

Buy your Christmas Chinaware at E. A. OLSEN'S. He's closing at an enormous reduction.

E. A. OLSEN is closing out his entire line of beautiful glass and Chinaware at bed-rock prices. Come early and take your pick.

Nineteen Prisoners Dined—There are nineteen prisoners in the county jail at present and these were treated to an elegant Christmas dinner. The bill-of-fare consisted of roast chicken, with cranberry sauce, mashed potatoes with brown gravy, celery and other vegetables, mince pie and coffee with cream and sugar. The spread was thoroughly enjoyed by the unfortunate inmates who expressed grateful appreciation to Sheriff Wilson.

REPAIRING. We repair all makes of typewriters. Get our estimates on your typewriter before having it repaired. L. H. Becraft, corner Grant and Twenty-fourth streets.

Coal Continues to Arrive—The local coal situation continues to improve and the danger of a serious shortage has passed for the present. Yardmaster Pierce of the Harriman system said this morning that a large supply of coal arrived last night and was ready for local dealers as soon as they needed it. Additional fuel will continue to come in in every train from the coal districts, and the supply at Ogden and tributary points will be all that is required.

Anniversary to be Observed—Major R. W. Young, Captain E. A. Woodwood and Captain John Chitchlow of the Utah volunteers in the Spanish-American war, have issued an invitation to members of batteries A and B of the Utah Light Artillery volunteers to gather in Salt Lake in an annual reunion on February 4th, the anniversary of the capture of Manila. An organization has been perfected, the mission of which is to arrange for the perpetuity of the celebration of the Fourth of February. The Utah boys played a conspicuous part in that memorable fight of February 4th, 1899, and it is thought by the members of the two regiments above referred to that the event, and the achievement of the Utah soldiers in the battle should be kept fresh in the memory of present and future generations. It is anticipated that most of the Ogden boys, connected with those batteries, will attend the function.

Miss Emilie Bannister left Thursday evening for Los Angeles, Cal., where she will join her mother, who is spending the winter there.

By special arrangements the Standard has purchased 50 of the best seats at the Orpheum theatre for next Wednesday evening and will give away the 50 reserved seat tickets to the first 25 persons who call at the Standard office between the hours of 8 and 11 a. m., who will pay one subscription in advance. Each subscriber shall have two tickets.

How can we do it? Give away two of the best tickets at the Orpheum and 30 days' subscription to the evening Standard? Perhaps we can't afford it. But we are trying it as an advertisement. Maybe we will give the first man or woman who calls on New Year's day a gold watch. But don't believe it unless you see it in the Standard. If you do see it there, remember, we give two tickets to each of the first twenty-five persons who pay a month's subscription in advance and to no other.

You must call at the Standard office to do this. You cannot pay a collector and get the tickets. You cannot telephone and get the tickets. You cannot send by mail and get them. You must call between 8 and 11 a. m. Don't come before 8, for you may freeze if it's cold, as the doors will be locked. Don't wait much after 8, as we expect the tickets to go rather quickly. If the crowd is big enough next Wednesday morning, we may buy the whole Orpheum show some night and give our subscribers a treat.

There will be 10 box tickets, 20 par. tickets and 20 first balcony seats, all reserved. First come takes first choice. Don't ask us to reserve any tickets, as they must be called for at the office. (Signed)

H. B. ARNOLD, Circulator.

HIGH MASS AT SIX O'CLOCK

The celebration of the grand feast at St. Joseph's church this forenoon was out of the ordinary. The interior of the church was beautifully decorated, the three altars being banked with flowers and covered with love and nature gifts of the Godchild. The high mass at 6 o'clock in the morning was an innovation to the Xmas services. The church was crowded. At the other masses there were large congregations. The order of the masses was as follows:

High mass, 6 a. m. next, 8:30, 9 and the last, followed by benediction, a high mass, at 10:30.

The musical program was as follows:

At the close of these services all went into the large Sunday school room which was lighted only by a very large Christmas tree reaching almost to the high ceiling and richly decorated and brilliantly lighted. The effect was a most attractive one. Santa Claus soon appeared with a numerous company of followers and gave a box of candy, an orange, an apple and some nuts to each one.

Quite a goodly amount of provisions and clothing were gathered by the children and brought to the entertainment. This will be given today to a few worthy needy families who have been cared for by this school.

WOMAN HOOKED BY COW
AT HOME IN CENTERVILLE

Centerville, Davis Co., Utah, Dec. 24.—A very serious accident occurred here this morning, when a Mrs. Jacobson was very painfully hooked by the family cow.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson recently moved to this village and are living on the Kemp ranch, on the foot hills east of the town. Mr. Jacobson had gone into Salt Lake City on business and Mrs. Jacobson was in the barn yard attending to the cow, which she had often done, as it was the family cow and long considered safe and perfectly gentle, when suddenly the animal attacked her with terrible viciousness, running her into a corner of the yard, hooking and wounding the lady very seriously. Finally the animal ceased her assault and Mrs. Jacobson got out of the yard and managed somehow to get to a neighbor's house, and word was sent to Mr. Jacobson, who hurried home, accompanied by a physician. An awful gash in the fleshy part of the leg was found with many other wounds in different parts of the body, and she is in a very precarious condition, but will probably recover unless internally injured or complications ensue.

P. J. MURPHY PROMOTED
P. J. Murphy, the genial manager of the Pacific hotel at Ogden, has been appointed inspector of dining cars and hotels of the Oregon Short Line system. The appointment was made by Superintendent Fred W. Gentsch and is effective as soon as Mr. Murphy is named for the Pacific hotel.

Mr. Murphy is one of the popular men of the hotel and dining car department and an efficient and capable employee. He has made many friends during his residence in Ogden, through his congenial ways. He accepts the new position, which comes as a Christmas present, with the best wishes of the "boys" of the railroad circle.

Before he has prospered greatly as the owner of seven telephone companies, Mr. Morgan may discover that there is one experience in this world he has heretofore missed—i. e., that of keeping "Central" in good humor.
